Nationals Play Richmond Today--Champion Skaters Meet in Big Derby

SEVEN PROFESSIONAL TEAMS WILL MEET IN AMERICAN ROLLER DERBY

The 100-mile Great American Roller, and payment at the each mile of the winber the biggest event or its kind even the biggest event or its kind even the different sprints.

Cloud and Eglington, the winners of the present twenty-four hour race in Madison and Eglington, are the favorites for the called off last night, giving the skatcalled off last night last ers plenty of time to rest up and be in good condition for the long grind.

This race will start at 3:30 this afterneon from the White House and will continue along the following route: Pennsylvania avenue to East Executive avenue, to the driveway south of the Treasury Building into Pennsylvania avenue and thence east to the Peace Monument, around said monument and then north in First street to B street, to New Jersey avenue, up New Jersey avenue to K street to Convention Hall.

After entering Convention Hall the affair will evolve into a team race which allows a skater to relieve his partner at any time up until the eighty-mile mark whon the event will be run on the Berlin style of scoring for the final twenty miles. This style of scoring, which is new to the public through this section, calls for a three-

FEDS APPROVE TRANSFER.

New York, March 26 .- After approving of the transfer of the Indianapolis club to Newark, and the settlement of the Kansas City litigation, and the turning ever to Brooklyn of Benny Kauff, formerly of the Indianapolis team, the Federal League magentes adjourned their session this afternoon until tomorrow morning. The season will open on April 16, and the schedule will be adonted tomorrow.

The 100-mile Great American Roller, lap sprint at the end of each mile, event, Blackburn and Allie Moore, and erby which will be skated today, will the points to be awarded to the win-Shipley and Yale are picked to give the champions a rub for their money not to mention the Woodworth-Moffett and Col-ston-L. Moore combination, the latter being a team of local youngsters, who, pro-vided their feet do not blister on them by virtue of lack of condition, should make things interesting for the favorites.

Another team, which was looked upon as having an even chance for the big Derby, namely, the Washington D.
C.-Newark, N. J. combination of Jack Woodworth and Arthur Launey, was broken up after Thursday night's races when Launey was disqualified in the final of the five-mile event and refused to further compete in the meet.
Woodworth will enter the press temped will arrive at Bennings tomorrow Woodworth will enter the races teamed with Billy Moffatt, the 17-year-old youngster from Worcester, Mass., who has been holding his own with the older and more experienced racers, and who, with Colston, formed the "kid" leam that made such a game showing in the ten-mile race Wednesday night.

New York, March 26. The gress receipts of the Cases White fight last night were $7,577. Of this sum White received $1,855 and Cross got $1,764.50.

arrive at Bennings tomorrow eighteen 2-year-olds which wile be rendy to race at Prince Georges Fark next week. Jack Metcalf, the leading rider on the All-Canadian circuit last season, is the chief jockey in the stable. He will be able to make 105 pounds at the Bowie meet. Metcalf won the entire card on dif-ferent occasions last season on the Canadian tracks and it was easy for him to ride from two to four winners day. Jack Thormby claims Metcalf considered one of the best jockeys day. in the country today. The Spreckels stable will be raced in all the Maryland meets. Today was marked by the appearance at Prince Georges Park of the first delegation from Oriental Park. Havans, where H. D. (Curley) Brown's naugural event in Cuba is soon to be brought to a close.

H. G. Bedwell brought the largest number of thoroughbreds from the island course, during which meeting he has finished far shead of the indi-vidual money winners. The former Western wizard, who has joined the ranks of Maryland turfmen by virtue of the purchase of a big farm near Laurel, has twenty-two to send to the post during the session of sport at Bowle, which is to be ushered in on Thursday afternon and will continue at Bowie which were rested up during the winter at Laurel, among which will be his Cunard 3-year-old, Sir Edgar, one of the fastest 2-year-olds of 1911. Bedwell has a stable of well-known campaigners, with the exception of a quartet of 2-year-olds, namely: Tab Her, Edgar, Tablete, List and Nellie E. all of of Pyear-box, names, 140 feet, die T. Golden List, and Nellie B., all of which have been nominated by Bedwell in the juvenile stakes to be run in the East and Canada this season, and they are to make their Maryland debut at Prince Georges Park. The older division of the Bedwell string embraces Lochiel. Majorie A., Brave Cunarder, Briarpath.

Majorie A., Brave Cunarder, Briarpath, Farlor Boy, Centuari, Sonny Boy, Master Jim, Uncle Fitz, Poctor, Dixle. The Lark, Unity. Runway and Commack. Surely this collection will do well at Bowie when properly placed.
